

Paid Seasonal Jobs Working for Historic Philadelphia, Inc.

Historic Philadelphia, Inc. seeks historical interpreters to portray an African American soldier from the American Revolution

Physical Attributes: African American man, Clean shaven, 20s to 50s

Part-time paid work, February through October 2026; could be extended.
Rehearsals – $14/hour. Performance – min. $75/show. Housing/Transportation not included.

Knowledge and Skills:

- Acting skills – improvisation and ability to work from a script
- Interpreting skills – ability to make relevant connections for guests
- Ability to take on the persona of a colonial figure
- Adaptability to various performing environments, from one-on-one encounters to large groups
- General knowledge and understanding of 18th century Philadelphia History and the American Revolution
- Willingness to explore and share complex and sensitive aspects of history

Physical Requirements:

- Ability to wear historically accurate 18th century clothing
- Ability to work outside in varied weather conditions and come in daily contact with pollen and other seasonal allergens

Auditions by invitation only; held September 25th, 2025. For more information visit www.historicphiladelphia.org.

HPI is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Send picture and resume to: auditions@historicphiladelphia.org